1. From his lone - ly, drear - y tomb, our Christ a - rose,
2. From their lone - ly i - so - la - tion they a - rose,
3. From our lone - ly i - so - la - tion we will rise,
4. With our Lord, one day, to - ge - ther, we will rise.

Not e - ven death could sep - a - rate us from his love.
Not e - ven fear could sep - a - rate them from his love.
Not e - ven doubt can sep - a - rate us from his love.
Yes, we will rise and sing an end - less hymn of praise.

All the strength of hate and e - vil, And the dark-ness of the night,
Then, up - lift - ed by the Spir - it, They went out to share the news,
Yes, un - cer - tain - ty and sick - ness Must give way to last - ing hope,
All the strength of hate and e - vil, And the dark-ness of the night,

— Could not o - ver - come God's want - ing to — be with us, —
— That their God was liv - ing, ris - en and tri - um - phant, —
— To the truth of Christ and his e - ter - nal pro - mise —
— Will not o - ver - come God's want - ing to — be with us, —

— Could not o - ver - come God's ev - er - pres - ent love.
— That their God would al - ways con - quer sin — and death.
— To be with us in — our trials and in — our pains.
— Will not o - ver - come God's ev - er - pres - ent love,

From his lone - ly, drear - y tomb, our Christ a - rose.
From their lone - ly i - so - la - tion they a - rose.
From our lone - ly i - so - la - tion we will rise.
With our Lord, one day, to - ge - ther, we will rise.
